DENCE MAN .-- A young German, who professed to be a homeopathic physician, and located in Dincinnati, was here last week, and became pretty well acquainted among the German peogood circumstances.

On Friday afternoon last, we learn, he was at the Saloon of the brothers Heinz, Third street, and while busily engaged in conversation, ob served that he had a patient at Chambersburg. whom he must see, and asked Mr. Heinz to oblige him by procuring him a horse and buggy at a livery stable. Mr. Heinz got the outlit for him at Shellaberger's Stable, and the man left, stating that he might have to go to Tippecanoe, and might not get back until the next day.

No one doubted the honesty of the man. He did not return that night, but on Monday, we believe, Mr. Heinz got a letter from him, stating that he was unexpectedly called to Troy; that he should not be uneasy; he would be home on Monday, &c., &c. Mr. Shellaberger got a little uneasy, but those who were acquainted with
